EVESHAM, NEW JERSEY (March 23, 2018) – Archway Programs’ Board of Trustees hosted its eleventh annual Employee Recognition Breakfast this morning with nearly 80 people in attendance and 38 staff members as they were honored in the Career Center at Archway’s Upper School. Each year Archway takes time to recognize its employees with longevity and salute outstanding staff members who have supported the organization as they reach career service milestones. Archway employees were recognized for 30, 25, 20, 15, 10, and 5 years of service.

Special congratulations to Kathleen Rapp and Sandra Graeber (pictured below, left-right) for 25 and 30 years of employment at Archway Programs!

George Richards, Chief Financial Officer and Interim Chief Executive Officer, thanked everyone for their work and dedication to serving Archway Programs. Staff members being recognized were introduced by their program supervisors.
"Our Employee Recognition Breakfast reminds us about what is important about Archway," Richards said. “It's not all about our accomplishments. It’s all about the people. Thank you for all that you do every day, even when there is no recognition,” he said.
